What Washday Means to a Woman DEAR EDITOR:—Most men have no realization of what "wash-day" means to a woman. My susband is one of the best men that ever lived, but so laughed when I asked him one day to get me a tubful of clothes in six minutes. "Why wife," said he, "a

So one moruing he started in. My, what a commotion there was in the kitchen! From my bedoom I occasionally caught glimpses of poor John truggling with that mountain of dirty clothes. If ever a man had all the "exercise" he wanted, my husband was that man! Couldn't help feeling sorry for him and yet it made me laugh, for I remembered how he made fun of me when I hinted so strongly for a 1900 Gravity Washer. When he sinally got the clothes done and on the line, he was just about "all in."

That evening. John came to my room and said kind of sheepishly—"What's the name of the firm hat makes those Washers you were telling/me about?" I looked up their advertisement and found the following address:

Military Committee of the House.

The bill is known as the "Civil War Officers' Admity Honor Roll." As amended by the Military Committee the provisions of the bill also apply to private soldiers and non-commissioned officers, except that while the officers are to be paid at the rate of $50 per month the soldiers are to receive $25. By the provisions of this bill all officers are to provisions of this bill all officers are to be paid exactly alike, without regard to rank, and before any officer or private soldier can be entered on the Honor Roll, he shall have served for a period of not less than one year, and shall have been honorably discharged. Every member of the Military Committee was present when this bill was considered and the vote in favor of reporting the bill stood 10 to 9. Any officer who resigned or was discharged because of wounds is entitled to be placed on the Honor Roll without reference to his length of service. The bill applies also length of service. The bill applies also to officers of the navy and enlisted men. No officer of soldier, as the bill now stands, is available for the Honor Roll until he attains the age of 70 years. They imagined that the Yankee trick." They imagined that the army had fallen back to entice them on so as to make their whipping more complete. After Comrade Parker's dis-charge he went to work on the railroad, and after five years' apprenticeship was promoted to engineer, and served as such up to July 10, 1904, when he was injured in a wreck, and since that time has not been able to do any manual labor. He found that he had need of just as much nerve and sand in running an engine on a fast train as in charging the enemy in line of battle. In the ac-cident which terminated his service his fireman was killed. Altogether he had 43 years' service as an engineer.
